

PRISONER SUBMISSION FOR PAROLE			Admin Form
Version: 01	Implement date: 02/01/2018	Availability: Public	308

Once you have submitted your application for parole you will be invited to attend an interview with a Corrective Services Officer. What you talk about goes into a report for the Parole Board, this means if you want the Parole Board to know something about you, you should talk about it at interview.

You do not have to complete this document, however it will help you get ready for your interview and give you a better understanding of what will be discussed. Complete this form with dot points or sentences and bring it along to your interview to help you talk about the things that are important to you.

Prisoner Name:		Prisoner ID:
Centre:		Interview Date:
Interviewing Officer:

BACKGROUND – talk about yourself.

Criminal Behaviours:
Talk about your offences and explain your version of events.
You should also consider how your crime affected your victim/s and friends/family.
Substance Abuse:
Do you have a problem with drugs or alcohol?
If yes, how are drugs and/or alcohol linked to your offending?
Mental Health & Wellbeing:
Does disability, mental health or illness have anything to do with your offending?

FUTURE PLAN – what is your plan when you get out of custody?

Relationships and Community Support:

Who will support and help you in the community? Why are they important to you?

Support people may include friends, family, children, doctors, case workers, psychologists or counsellors.

Accommodation:

What are your accommodation plans for the future?

Include where you would like to live and who you might live with.

Key Risks:

What things might increase your risk of getting in trouble after you leave prison?

- 1:
- 2:
- 3:
- 4:
- 5:
- 6:

Get Back on Track:

What's your plan to get back on track?
How will you avoid old habits?

This form is used to help you through your interview.
This form will be attached to your offender record with QCS.
This form is NOT provided to the Parole Board unless requested by them.